

Make Cumbria BVD Free! National BVD Eradication Scheme

Tuesday 31st January 2017
Carlisle Auction, Borderway Mart, Rosehill, Carlisle CA1 2RS
Food from 19:30, meeting start 20:00 prompt

Agenda

19:30 Light supper and hot drinks provided

20.00 Welcome and introduction

What is BVD? - Kath Aplin, Boehringer Ingelheim Ltd

BVDFree England - Derek Armstrong, AHDB Dairy

Case studies from local vet practices:

- Learnings from the Scottish eradication scheme – Kevin Beattie, Capontree Vets
- BVD issues in vaccinated herds and getting on top of the situation – Rachel Tennant, Frame Swift & Partners
- BVD and the challenge for calf rearers – James Frayne, Millcroft Veterinary Group

21.15 Q&A

21:30 Close

What is the BVDFree scheme?

BVDFree is an industry-led scheme that was launched on 1st July 2016 in England. By taking a coordinated approach, this scheme aims to achieve the eradication of Bovine Viral Diarrhoea (BVD) virus from all cattle herds in the country by 2022.

To book your place please contact the AHDB KE Events Hub on 01904 771211 or ke.events@ahdb.org.uk

Please ensure you register for catering purposes

Frame, Swift and Partners

